RE: MISSING FISHERMEN OFF THE COAST OF TAMIL NADU

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN (Tamil Nadu): Madam, 60 fishermen are missing off the coast of Tamil Nadu from Saturday, the 27th of February. Madam, according to newspaper reports, a flotilla of 20 boats with fishermen went out to seek prawns near the Katchatheevu island. And a gun point, the Sri Lankan Navy took them away to Mannar. Fivt of the boats managed to escape and some of the fishermen came back with a story to Rameswaram where they reported the matter to the authorities. Till today, the fate of those 58 fishermen is completely unknown. We do not know what happened to them. They have not been released. We apprehend danger to their lives. We do not know what is happening. This has gone on long enough. Since 1983, more than 100 fishermen have been killed in these clashes. I demand that the Government of India should take firm action
